Every inch one pushes off beyond the normal distance of twelve inches, after eye failure begins, means an inch of danger. Ninety-nine persons out of a hundred may do it safely; you may be the one who can't. Those having the best eyes when old age comes will be those who heed the first call for help.

BARRY MAY FIGHT AGAIN

Several Matches Being Arranged Among Scrappers.

There is considerable fight talk going on in sporting circles and the probabilities of a card of unusual merit to be pulled off at the Orpheum Saturday night, January 23, are very good. Among the matches already made for the above date is one between Dave Barry, who is now the local champion, and Bill Williams, otherwise known as "Kid" Carter. The latter is a heavy-weight, tipping the scales at over 185 pounds and looks to be a very formidable opponent. He has just arrived here and the fact that he has challenged Barry with the provision that the winner takes all the purse, proves him to be full of confidence in his ability. If looks count he should be able to take Barry's measure in short order but the latter does not seem to fear a few extra pounds on an opponent. Oscar Kreuter and Nigel Jackson have also been matched for six rounds, the winner to take all the purse. These two rivals have fought before in private on which occasion Kreuter won. Those who witnessed it claim it was a great fight. Since then it has been Jackson's ambition to regain his laurels and when the men meet again the bout should be an interesting one. McDonald, the man who showed up so well at the last affair at the Orpheum, will probably be matched against the Guam Wonder. The match that is creating the most talk is one between Jack Weday and Bill Hulihul and Manager Cohen is trying to arrange for this match to take place at the same time thereby making it a gala event. Cohen offered a purse of $225 for these two for a ten-round contest, and thought the match was made, as Weday had accepted, but now Hulihul won't fight for over six rounds and wants an even division of the purse. It is hardly probable that Weday will agree to the latter proposition, and again, Cohen will not pay that amount for a preliminary of six rounds. In speaking of this Cohen said: "The public is kicking at high prices for ordinary bouts and it is my intention to bring this affair off at popular prices, say at a rate ranging from 50c. to $1.50, but some of our local would-be-champions are so exorbitant in their demands that it is well nigh impossible to do so. Some of them who could not get $10 for fighting in San Francisco want at least $100, and then go into the ring with the idea of getting the money as easy as possible. Instead of putting up a good exhibition they disgust the audience. "I believe Weday and Hulihul would give a great contest but Hulihul must come down a peg in his ideas. There is a lot of good material in Frisco that would be glad to come down, and unless the local boys are reasonable I shall send to the coast for some of them."

Secure a home on Pacific Heights and enjoy life. EVERYTHING READY FOR IAUKEA'S BOND Treasurer Kepoikai, before leaving for Maui yesterday, had the form of receipt in readiness for turning over the tax office to Assessor Iaukea whenever he qualified to the Oahu County Board of Supervisors. Assessor Pratt perused the form and found it right, and would be only too glad properly to be rid of his old office. The Land Office of the Territory finds enough business for him, especially in view of his approaching trip to Hawaii with the Governor. Treasurer Kepoikai would only have the receipt taken from the county assessor for the records, blanks, stationery, etc., excluding furniture and fixtures. These, from the fact of their cost having come out of appropriations for furniture and repairs of government buildings, the Treasurer holds should be received for to the Superintendent of Public Works. New Year's Advertiser ready for mailing at 5c each to be had at the office. HAWAIIAN LODGE, NO. 21 F. & A. M. THERE WILL BE A SPECIAL meeting of Hawaiian Lodge No. 21, F. & A. RACE IN FAR EAST

Walker Willing to Take a Yacht to Japan.

Charles Walker, the boat builder, who recently returned from Japan, where he had gone to challenge Japanese yachtsmen to compete for a Hawaiian cup, has written to a gentleman in Yokohama, stating that he will race a Hawaiian-built boat in Japanese waters on certain conditions. The Japanese yachtsmen wanted to race a boat with a 35-foot water line. This would be practically impossible for Hawaiian yachtsmen to consider, as such a boat would have to be sailed across the Pacific from Honolulu to Yokohama, and would probably arrive at the latter port in no condition to compete. Mr. Walker has suggested that the Japanese yachtsmen agree to race a boat, 35 feet over all, somewhat on the plan of the Gladys. Such a boat could be transported on the deck of a passenger liner. Mr. Walker agrees with the Hawaii Yacht Club to accompany the boat to race her, at his own expense. Allan Dunn would do the same. Mr. Walker asks that the local yacht club bear the expenses of the crew and the expense of shipping the boat both ways. The race would be sailed for yen 5000, and Mr. Walker agrees to take his chances on winning this amount to recompense him for the expense of building the boat.

USEFUL YOUNG MAN COMES TO HIS END

Vincent Fernandez died at his home in Kalihi yesterday morning, shortly after having been carried ashore from the steamer Mauna Loa. He had been in a decline for about a year past and went to Kona, Hawaii, about six weeks ago with hope of benefit from the salubrious climate of that district. It was all too late for him, and he came home to die. There was difficulty, indeed, in keeping up his vitality on board the steamer so that he might reach Honolulu alive. The dead young man was an industrious and thrifty Hawaiian, belonging to a family of the same characteristics, which makes his removal in early life a loss to the community. He was born in Honolulu some thirty-three years ago of a Hawaiian mother, his father, now dead a good many years, having been a retired veteran of the British army in the Far East who, in honorable business here, did well for himself and his family. Besides a wife, Vincent Fernandez leaves a sister and three brothers, the eldest of the latter being Abraham Fernandez, for years manager of the Hawaiian Hardware Co. For the past eight years the subject of this obituary has been employed by A. V. Gear as a clerk. He revealed an aptitude for business and always evinced an unshoddy politeness that made people like him. He made an exceptionally snug home for himself at Kalihi, from whence the funeral will take place, to Kalihi cemetery, at 3 o'clock this afternoon.

WORKING OUT RUBBISH MINES

The sanitary inspectors, on their Saturday afternoon special tour, did effective work. They found many things to be remedied. The wagon followed their trail Monday morning and picked up loads of tin cans, etc. For the past two days the mosquito brigade under direction of Mr. Larnach has been making a thorough clean-up of the old Fowler's Yard section, also of the block between Hotel Union and Fort streets. Four loads of tin cans and other water-holding vessels were hauled away. Although there has been no meeting of the mosquito committee for a week or two past, plans are being matured which it is hoped will be materially effective in the campaign. Flag for Kailua. Secretary Atkinson yesterday went out and bought a National flag and sent it by the Kinau to the county of West Hawaii, for hoisting upon the county building at Kailua. This was done by direction of Governor Carter, who promptly took action in response to a request from Assessor J. K. Nahale for the glorious symbol of freedom. Mr. Nahale, in his letter to the Governor, stated that West Hawaii's county government was organized and in running order, though without any funds. From twenty to thirty claimants on the Chinese fund had their cases attended to by Secretary Atkinson yesterday. There are many applicants to the Secretary for certificates of Hawaiian birth of Chinese children, without which if they are taken to China by their parents they cannot return to the Territory.

DR. SUN YET ON CHINA

A Famous Revolutionist Addresses Research Club.

At the regular meeting of the Research Club held last evening at the residence of W. W. Hall, Nuuanu street, the feature of the session was an able and interesting address by Dr. Sun Yat Sen, the Chinese leader of the Revolutionist party, his subject being "Things Chinese." He spoke slowly and with care, and presented a very lucid statement of conditions in the Chinese Empire. He opened by saying that the subject was a large one, that the Empire was larger than the United States and had a population of 400,000,000 people. It was an absolute monarchy, there being no judicial system, no congress, no responsible ministry. The Empire consisted of several groups of states, each almost a distinct empire. There was China proper with the descendants of the original Chinese race; second, Manchuria; third, Mongolia; and fourth, Tibet. Manchuria was governed by a Tartar general; Mongolia by a Prince of the country itself; Tibet by its priesthood at the head of which is the Lama. The Emperor of China is a Manchu of the dynasty which conquered China in 1744, A. D. In the Empire there were eighteen provinces each governed by a viceroy. Each province is divided into districts at the head of which is a government official or magistrate. The average population is a million to each district. There being but one government official to such a large community shows the government does not extend deep among the people. This indicates also that the Chinese live a comparatively free community existence. All struggles in China have mainly been dynastic. One village, however, can make war upon another. The speaker said the weakness of China was the lack of centralized control. There was too much liberty of a loose kind to hold the empire together. The people of China were essentially homogeneous; barring the dialects on the coast they were practically of one language. While the present government was feeble and in a dying condition, it could not maintain control. The partition of China would prove impossible. The Chinese would resent it and European powers would find that it involved unpleasant difficulties.

EXECUTIVE TOURS OF OTHER ISLANDS

Governor G. R. Carter will leave Honolulu in the steamer Kinau next Tuesday to make a tour of the Island of Hawaii. Secretary A. L. C. Atkinson will accompany him, also Land Commissioner J. W. Pratt and Private Secretary F. D. Creedon. This will be the initial one of a series of executive visits to the different islands, with the object of gaining an insight upon the ground into Territorial interests everywhere in the group. The expedition to Hawaii will make a landing at Mahukona and proceed through Kohala, Waimea and Hamakua districts to Hilo. From the chief town the Governor's party will go to Oloa, thence completing the circuit by visiting Puna, Kau, and South and North Kona. In Kohala special observations will be made and information gathered bearing upon the Kohala water license. Public works in all districts will be inspected with, doubtless, the obtaining of material for special representations to Washington besides what will be useful to the intelligent administration of strictly Territorial affairs. The Hawaii trip would have been taken in yesterday's steamer but for the expected arrival of retiring Governor Taft of the Philippines this week. Two Assessors Installed. Treasurer Kepoikai has taken the necessary action for turning over the business of two assessors' offices to the elected and qualified county incumbents. The first is to William McDougall, assessor of the county of West Hawaii, and the second to C. A. Rice, assessor of the county of Kauai. The Treasurer was not informed of the respective amounts of bonds given, but received a certificate that the officer in each case had qualified. Fairly Well Exempt. Joseph Kekupaa is one of the jurors who was returned from the Jury Commissioners' list of 250 citizens qualified to serve. He takes exception to the return, however, in an affidavit filed in Judge De Bolt's court, where he was summoned to appear. In this document he declares on his oath: "(1) That he is over the age of seventy years; (2) that he has no knowledge of the English language; (3) that he is afflicted with chronic diarrhoea."

IT'S ALL TALK

Yes, But it is Honolulu Talk the Kind that Counts in Honolulu.

Talk that tells. Talk that's endorsed. Every day talk by people who know. City talk, kidney talk. Do kidneys talk? Well, yes, both loud and long. You should learn the kidney language. Backache in kidney talk means kidney ache. Lame back means lame kidneys. A bad back is simply The kidneys talking trouble. Here's Honolulu talk and kidney talk: Mrs. Grace Dodd of 524 Young street, this city, informs us: "My sufferings were of a complicated nature: I had enlargement of the liver, according to the doctors' diagnosis, and besides this was troubled with severe pains in the right side, and a lame back. I had these backache pains for two years, and so severe were they at times that they prevented me from sleeping. All the medicines I tried were of no avail until I got some of Doan's Backache Kidney Pills at the Hollister Drug Co.'s store, and used them. The benefit obtained was wonderful; the backache was entirely relieved and I could not be too grateful for this since I now enjoy good sleep—one of the chief of Nature's blessings." It is important to get the same medicine which helped Mrs. Dodd—DOAN'S BACKACHE KIDNEY PILLS. Therefore ask for Doan's Backache Kidney Pills. Doan's Backache Kidney Pills are sold by all chemists and storekeepers at 50 cents per box, six boxes $2.50, or will be mailed on receipt of price by the Hollister Drug Co., Honolulu, wholesale agents for the Hawaiian Islands.

THE MARVELOUS MANGO

In support of efforts to extend the cultivation of the mango in Porto Rico and Florida, G. N. Collins, one of the Government botanists, states that this fruit deserves to become as popular as the orange and banana. Another expert, George W. Oliver, agrees that the mango will undoubtedly grow in popular favor. "At present," said he, "it is suffering from a bad reputation, owing to the fact that the fruits that have been placed before the public in recent years have been grown mainly from seedling trees that are fit only to be used for stocks or as wind-breaks." He says that the fruits of this tree thus far offered for sale are really wild or jungle mangoes, and that they bear the same relation to the scientifically cultivated mango that the crab-apple does to the Baldwin or Ben Davis variety. The great importance of developing this fruit has been so thoroughly recognized by the Government that it has had experts in India and other tropical lands searching for improved varieties. These have been shipped to America where, under glass, extensive experiments in propagation are under way. It has been demonstrated that one mango tree will bear as many as 10,000 fruits. With 100 trees to the acre the yield at that rate would be 1,000,000 mangoes. An annual yield of 160,000,000 mangoes on a quarter-section of land shows the possibilities of this industry, when the fruit becomes popular. Though the primary use of the mango is as a fresh fruit, it serves many other purposes where its virtues have been recognized. Canned, they are pronounced to be as good as peaches. In official experiments by the Botanical Department of Jamaica thirteen mangoes produced one pint of jelly and five quarts of marmalade. Mango forms one of the main ingredients in chutneys. The bruised and imperfect fruit may be profitably distilled into a fair grade of alcohol. Roasted and made into a sherbet it is taken in India to prevent sunstroke. From the leaves of the mango a yellow dye is extracted. The bark mixed with that of pomegranate and a species of bauhina also produces a yellow dye stuff. Mixed with the bark of certain trees of India a permanent black dye is obtained. The juice of the bark blended with lime yields a fast green. To this mixture the addition of turmeric produces a bright rose-pink. Frequently a great amount of gum exudes from the trunk of mango trees. This is said to be a substitute for gum arabic. In India the mango, prepared in a variety of ways, is one of the staple articles of food. It is used in curries, made into pickles, custards, salads, and certain kinds of cakes. Even the kernels are used. Stuffed with coriander and other spices and boiled in mustard oil, they are regarded as a great delicacy.—Saturday Evening Post.
